

Dr. Ann Turnbull

CREATING WIN-WIN-WIN CONDITIONS THROUGH TRUSTING PARTNERSHIPS

Dr. Ann Turnbull engages her audience through sharing her personal experiences of lessons learned with lose-lose-lose and win-win-win situations. From this foundation, she breaks down trusting partnerships into 6 key principles: Communication, Competence, Respect, Commitment, Equality, and Advocacy. Ann provides an overview of the key principles and shares strategies families and professionals can use to build and maintain the principles over time.

Dr. Turnbull is a Retired Distinguished Professor of Special Education at the University of Kansas who has authored 32 books and over 275 articles. She is also a parent and pioneer of the U.S. parent to parent movement.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 8, 2017

RAMADA TROPICS CONFERENCE CENTER | DES MOINES

FAMILIES & STUDENTS $65 | PROFESSIONALS $85

Exhibit tables available for $100 / $150
CEUs and scholarships available!

DETAILS & REGISTRATION:

ASKRESOURCE.ORG/SYMPOSIUM

ASK Resource Center's Annual Symposium features national content experts in family/professional partnerships, advocacy, and disability policy for families of individuals with disabilities and the people who support them.

